

Canadian Library Support Staff Day

October 2015

All great libraries depend on their support staff to help to ensure that libraries provide excellent customer service to their communities. Support staff work behind the scenes and in the forefront to help libraries grow and provide excellent service to users. Their vital contribution to libraries across our country deserves national recognition.

CLA has designated the third Friday in October as Canadian Library Support Staff Day and hopes you will join us on October 16 in celebrating the work of support staff in Canadian libraries. This day is an opportunity to demonstrate our appreciation for the efforts of library technicians, library assistants, library clerks, shelvers, and all other support staff who help ensure libraries remain integral to communities served through our public, private, school, government, academic, and corporate libraries. Canadian Library Support Staff Day is recognized during Canadian Library Month, an annual celebration of libraries, library workers, and the services they provide to their communities.

On behalf of the Canadian Library Association I am very pleased to proclaim October 16, 2015 "Canadian Library Support Staff Day".
