

Canadian Library Association / Association canadienne des bibliothèques Position Statement on Public Library Boards

Approved by Executive Council ~ October 26, 1979

The Canadian Library Association, as a national body with two divisions (the Canadian Association of Public Libraries and the Canadian Library Trustees' Association) devoted to the promotion of library service, maintains an advocacy position in affirming the role played by existing public library boards (municipal, regional and provincial) in developing effective public library service in Canada.
